DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 22-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 22, line 13, the phrase "second upper portion" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 22, line 14, it is unclear ^{from}~~form~~ the claim, if the striker pin or the striking head extends to a lower portion of the body aperture.

In claim 22, lines 9,23,26,31 and 33, it appears that nail or tack accommodating portion should be "carpet tack nail accommodating portion"

Claim 23 recites the limitation "rubber body extension" in claim 23. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 22 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
4. Claims 23-28 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's amendment to claim 22 to define a carpet tack nail accommodating portion overcomes the rejection of Clifford, which does not utilize a portion of the lower body to engage the nail in the tack strip to position the tack strip prior to installation.
6. An attempt to contact Roy Berkenstock to resolve the 112, second paragraph issues was unsuccessfully made on 6/7/2006.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
